

Retriever Titles

These titles can be earned through the CKC, AKC, UKC and NAHRA:

JH (Junior Hunter) — CKC and AKC title.

SH (Senior Hunter) — CKC and AKC title earned by receiving 5 passes at the Senior level in a licensed Hunt Test.

MH (Master Hunter) — CKC and AKC title earned by receiving 6 passes at the Master level in a licensed Hunt Test.

The UKC offers a stake but no titles for beginning (Junior/Started) level dogs.

HR (Hunting Retriever) — A UKC title that is earned by acquiring 40 points. 30 of those points must be at the Seasoned or Finished level.

HRCH (Hunting Retriever Champion) — A UKC title that is earned by acquiring 100 points, 60 of which must be earned at the Finished level.

GHRCH (Grand Hunting Retriever Champion) — A UKC title that is earned by acquiring 220 points at the Finished level and 80 points from the HRC Grand Hunt. This is the highest possible hunt test title offered in the UKC.

UH (Upland Hunter) — A UKC title that is available for those that train their dogs for upland bird hunting.

SR (Started Retriever) — The entry level NAHRA title. This title is earned by acquiring 10 points.

WR (Working Retriever) — NAHRA title earned by acquiring 20 points in the Intermediate level.

MHR (Master Hunting Retriever) — NAHRA title earned by acquiring 100 points, 80 of which must be earned at the Senior level.

GMHR (Grand Master Hunting Retriever) — NAHRA title earned by acquiring 300 points at the Senior level. This is the highest possible title offered by NAHRA.

The following titles can only be earned by winning through competition:

NFC (National Field Champion) — Awarded once yearly to the dog that wins the National Open. It is the most coveted of all Retriever field titles.

NAFC (National Amateur Field Champion) — Awarded once yearly to the dog that wins the National Amateur. This competition is much like the National Open except that all handlers are amateurs.

FC (Field Champion) — Awarded to dogs that have won an Open at a licensed field trial and have acquired five additional Open points.

AFC (Amateur Field Champion) — Earned same as the Field Champion but handled by an amateur or by winning an amateur stake at a field trial and acquiring ten additional amateur points.

FTCh. (Field Trial Champion) — CKC's title for Field Champion.

AFTCh. (Amateur Field Trial Champion) — CKC's title for Amateur Field Champion.

DC (Dual Champion) — Awarded to dogs that have both a Field Champion and have earned its' bench Champion title.
